With this unique framework for insight and understanding, we learn to see and to express with a certainty that the Divine is intimately intertwined with us every moment of our lives.

Long-time spiritual teacher and aspiring mystic Ronald Chapman has invested thirty years in understanding the play of miracles in his life. As a mentor to others and a facilitator for organizations, he practices and teaches awareness and observation approaches to aid in recognizing the Divine in all things. Ronald is also an internationally accredited speaker and workshop leader, a national award-winning radio commentator, and author of two novels, "My Name is Wonder" and "A Killer's Grace", a meditation audio set, "Breathing, Releasing, and Breaking Through", and the workbook, "Seeing True: Ninety Contemplations in Ninety Days".

Breathing, Releasing and Breaking Through by Ronald Chapman-Ronald Chapman's Seeing True approach guides individuals and organizations to realize their full potential by deepening their understanding. After two decades of research and experience a body of work has arisen that involves the use of breath work and meditation to further growth and development. The techniques bypass our intellect to nurture greater understanding, deepen our awareness, and allow us to act with greater clarity and effectiveness. Now Ronald has brought together those practices in an instructional three-disc format to support our efforts to realize a life that is more whole. Those who use these practices invariably experience greater inner calm, while some report significant, positive changes in relationships with others, the world and themselves.

Guidance by Aron Abrahamson-The quest for guidance is more a learning of how to listen, being alert to signs, trusting those signs, and finally from this, acting upon one's intuitive judgment. Even before I understood astral projection or started giving readings, we pursued guidance and received it. We have discovered that timing can be very crucial, and that action is often required without hesitation. It is a matter of believing that what God says is true, and all that's needed is for us to follow up on what's been told us.

GOD is a Woman by Edin Huskovic -It may well be that you label the book in front of you as a natural continuation of the stream of thoughts in those fragments where your thoughts stopped – or where your life stopped. It may well be that you are caught off-guard and unprepared in front of a text offered by the book “God is a Woman”. You may find as well, by reading the text which follows, that your religious, spiritual or national feelings cherished by you for years are shaken and questioned too. All in all, book “God is a Woman” will not leave you indifferent. And that is our only goal – that after you read first five chapters of the book you simply do not remain indifferent. And whether you will keep on reading the book with enthusiasm or throw it away from you in resignation, let it be your choice only. Even if we could we do not have the intention to make an influence on that decision – anytime and anywhere. Except that we propose that together with us you try to tread on your own Path of One difference. (Or Single diversity)

The fight is not always easy, but like the Spiritualists who lived in New Castle 100 years before, she is determined to succeed.

Commerce across the world almost came to a standstill, and no large industries were hiring anyone, because they were either laying off workers or closing down. The Dykes family drove south, and Bill Dykes found small jobs for piece meal pay, however, he earned sufficient money to feed his family and also help a few others who were less fortunate.

Like A River To The Sea by Paul Fisher - “Like a River to the Sea” is the story of an ordinary man, who, it turns out, has a most extraordinary story to tell. Joshua Davidson was born in Nashville Tennessee; in his 41st year, he is about to die there. This is the story of his life, his loves, his hopes, dreams and fears. It is also the story of what happens to him at the moment he shuffles off this mortal coil, and then what lays beyond. It will change the way you look at your own life, and how you tell your own story. Joshua’s story will help you to understand how all the seemingly random people and events that collide with us in our lives are, in fact, quite premeditated and full of purpose.

Life of a Military Psychologist by Sally Wolf - With the stock market tanking, Dr. Sara Fox is forced from her comfortable small town therapy practice and thrust into the violent world of military mental health and intimate partner violence, where officers are rarely guilty, victims are always blamed, and questioning the status quo can be a death sentence. While juggling a family at home and a new relationship, Sara tries to stay sane in the face of grizzly war stories both foreign and in the homes of service members. If that was not enough, Sara’s violent offender’s rehabilitation group comes under suspicion of stolen Iraqi payoff money, stolen valor, and countless stolen lives. Will Sara be silenced by the military’s iron will, or can she find her voice to save herself and the patients she dedicates her life to help?

Croton by Artur Tadevosyan - “What is happening to me? Where am I? Is this a dream?” Thoughts were stampeding in the queue to get into Henry’s head. The last one seemed to be on the verge of explosion. Breath. He was running out of it. He felt like he was going to have a heart attack. The last thoughts started to trigger his memory.

“Heart attack? That’s what happened to me. But where is everybody? Nurses, doctors? Why is nobody helping me? Does my family know where I am?” From the top of his lungs, he screamed, “What is going on?” His voice echoed through the emptiness, and nobody gave him any answers. Steadily his pulse slowed down; his breath returned to normal, and Henry, like any other human, started to think. In other words, he started to rationalize the situation. The first question that popped into his mind was, “Am I dead?” After quite a substantial check of his body, he agreed that feeling was still there. He could see.

Beyond All Boundaries - Book 1 by Lyn Willmott - Although set in the remote Kimberley Ranges of Northern Australia, this story centers around an ancient kingdom, slightly offset from Earth's frequency, struggling to deal with a prophecy that predicts the coming of a young Earthling whose mission is to realign the two realities before the coming planetary upheavals.

Rod Oaken is the teenager who accidentally stumbles into this hidden realm, and through a series of adventures he learns how to communicate telepathically with nature, he comes to understand the mysteries of this remote but very advanced kingdom and eventually he accepts his vital role in the time-honored prophecies.

This is the first book of the trilogy 'Beyond All Boundaries' that takes us from Northern Australia, into present day Sydney and eventually to discover a mystical underground city that hold the key to the future.

Beyond All Boundaries - Book 2 by Lyn Willmott - As the story continues, friends of the missing archaeologist and his son discover the mythical kingdom hidden deep in the Kimberley ranges. After many skirmishes, they are finally convinced by the oracle to help Chaldee—the ruler of the kingdom—find a professor who is developing a powerful healing substance aimed at helping mankind. Governmental forces want to suppress this scientific discovery, so the clash of ideologies as Chaldee and her earthling friends find, then transport the professor to safety is gripping. They film their entire adventure, but as it is being broadcast the authorities try to shut down the television station. These high-level officials will not heed the oracle's warnings of a coming planetary disaster, so Chaldee and her friends withdraw, returning to her sovereign domain in the wilds of northern Australia.

Beyond All Boundaries - Book 3 by Lyn Willmott - As the story moves into the last book of the trilogy, we know that Chaldee's kingdom has been destroyed, meaning she must seek a new homeland, but the search seems fruitless until, with the help of her Earthling friends, the search leads them into the wonders of a secret city, hidden deep underground. Meanwhile, in Sydney Jake's efforts to help Adele and her father end in tragedy forcing Jake and Ben to reach out to Chaldee. At the same time Chaldee's enemy, the Commander, has been captured by an army unit and taken back to Sydney. Their intent is to use him to find Chaldee but he outwits them. Eventually, when the five Earthling friends are united, they are welcomed into the mystical city, and through the help of the masters of that city, Chaldee is offered a place of environmental perfection, thus they are led to the kingdom's new home.

Beyond the Source Book 1 by Guy Steven Needler- In his first book, The History of God – A Channeled Work, Guy gave the reader an insight into how he started higher level communications and how he managed to communicate with spiritual/energetic entities while gaining insights into the wonders that are all around us and what the truth is about our legends and myths. He also started his identification with the Origin and the Source Entity which explains the mechanics of the universe that one of its creations created. There were actually twelve Source Entities created by the Origin (or God as we have come to call it). This book reveals the first six of the twelve Source Entities and the work that each of them has done in their own environments which are very different to each other.

The Origin Speaks by Guy Steven Needler - In The Origin Speaks the reader is taken beyond the author's Beyond the Source books to a direct dialogue with the ultimate creator, the "all there is," the "absolute," the "Origin."

Have you ever thought about who or what God is or who the co-creators are? Or even, what is beyond God? What if God was indeed finite and that there was a much bigger "infinite" being, one that created God and the co-creators?

The Curators by Guy Steven Needler - Ever wondered what made the Universe? - Was it the big bang? - Why is it not expanding or contracting? Why does it appear to have an orderly level of functionality? Are there more universes within a much larger multiversal environment? If so, where are they? Are theoretical physicists correct?

In The Curators the reader is exposed to the mechanics of the multiversal environment we exist within and those entities that maintain it.

The Three Waves of Volunteers and The New Earth by Dolores Cannon - This is a fascinating narrative that reveals the cosmic forces that have been in play over the past 66 years. Help has come from the outside to preserve the human race. In 1945 when the atomic bombs were exploded, our "protectors" and "watchers" in outer space saw that Earth was on a collision course with disaster. The prime directive of non-interference prevented them from taking any action, but then they came up with a brilliant plan to save Earth and assist her in her ascension. They couldn't interfere from the "outside," but maybe they could influence from the "inside." So, the call went out for volunteers to come and help. "Earth is in trouble - who wants to volunteer?" Dolores Cannon, through her hypnosis work has discovered three waves of these volunteers. Some have come direct from the "Source" and have never lived in any type of physical body before. Others have lived as space beings on other planets or other dimensions. Because all memory is erased upon entry to the Earth dimension, they do not remember their assignment. Thus, these beautiful souls have a difficult time adjusting to our chaotic world. These souls have a vital role to play as they help the rest of us ascend to the New Earth.

Healing

A Small Book of Comfort by Lyn Willmott - Guided by her own experiences of dealing with chronic depression, Lyn Willmott has written a series of dialogues designed to inspire people who are looking for methods to change their lives. Just the everyday stress of living is causing many people to search for a more positive meaning to their lives, while others are struggling to survive the ravages of mental trauma. With this in mind, Lyn is suggesting we use the powerhouse of our own inner self to bring about the transformation we are seeking, and within these twenty-two dialogues there is a way to do this.

Soul Speak by Julia Cannon- Discover the secret language of the body! Every ache, pain and symptom is the body delivering a message of importance to you in its own unique language. This book is a translation manual that teaches you that language. It is critical for our spiritual growth that we listen to what our bodies are trying to tell us.

In this book, you will discover what the messages from the different body systems mean and how you can heal any situation by understanding the message that is being delivered and acting appropriately on that message. This is a secret language that is now being revealed. It is no longer a mystery. Discover for yourself what YOU are trying to say to YOURSELF. Among the topics discussed: • What is your body telling you? •What is pain telling you? •How people make themselves sick. • Ways in which you can learn to heal yourself.

A Soul Remembers Hiroshima by Dolores Cannon- This book is the story of how Dolores carefully traced these experiences back to her life as a Japanese man named Nogorigatu living in Hiroshima during WWII. It tells the story of what the Japanese people experienced during the war and is a side of history that has neither been fully explored nor written about. At the time, it was Dolores most challenging case because she was unsure of how the young lady would react to reliving dying in an atomic explosion. It had to be handled with extreme care. The resulting story cries out to our time, "Do not let this horror happen again!"

Conversations with Nostradamus Volume 1 by Dolores Cannon- Through a million-to-one chance contact through hypnosis, Nostradamus has broken through to our time period to reveal the events he foresaw rushing toward humankind. The master himself explains the puzzles he carefully concealed in code within his famous quatrains or prophesies. By speaking from his time to our time, he warns us so we can use our free will to help change the future. He said, "If I show you the most horrible things man can do to himself; will you do something to change it?"

Conversations with Nostradamus Volume 2 by Dolores Cannon- This volume includes: More about the rise and the location of the Anti-Christ, including his horoscope; the correlation of 666 (the mark of the beast) and computers; More about the third world war and what countries will be affected; how AIDS was a planned disease by those in power, and when the cure will be found; dangerous new technology to control the weather and earthquakes; maps showing the portions of the continents that will remain after the axis shift and the melting of polar icecaps; horoscopes estimating the date of the Earth shift, as based on Nostradamus' quatrains; the role of Space Visitors during this time of tribulation; a look at the world of future after the war and the shift. These two volumes are an exciting journey into the realms of timeless and metaphysical adventure. "Fabulous reading and extremely well written." - Friends Review.

History & Prophecy

The Old Is New by L. R. Sumpter - In the course of writing this book, answers to the following questions and many others were given in both narrative and visual form. Most of them were presented rather forcefully, and not when I was expecting them. I understood that I was to share what I learned.

Five Lives Remembered by Dolores Cannon- The beginning. What do you do when you discover information that is before its time? What do you do when your curiosity takes you on an adventure that is so bizarre that there is nothing normal to relate to? This is what happened to Dolores Cannon in 1968, long before she began her career as a past-life hypnotherapist and regressionist. Travel back with us to that time when the words reincarnation, past-lives, regression, walk-ins, New Age were unknown to the general population. It went totally against the belief systems of the time. It was so startling that they should have stopped, but their curiosity demanded that they continue to explore the unorthodox. The experiment changed the participants and everyone involved, and their beliefs would never be the same.

Horns of the Goddess by Dolores Cannon - This book is about the past lives of three of these volunteers who went back to the time of the Druids and were giving information about how it was to live during this time and the difficulties that were experienced while trying to live with the faith of Mother Earth. The Inquisition was always lurking around trying to find these special groups that were not of their religion and were trying to force them to reveal information about their beliefs and practices. The Inquisition believed these special groups had powers and too much influence on the regular people.

So, come along with us and take the journey into the past.

As Dolores would say “They thought they had gotten rid of us with the torcher and burnings; but we’re back!”

They Walked with Jesus by Dolores Cannon- Recounts how people, in previous lives, met Jesus during his mission in Palestine. The contents are deeply moving, giving a palpable taste of Jesus' presence and influence as well as vivid accounts of his activities, travels, healings, and personal conversations. It includes scenes at the Temple in Jerusalem, visits to homes and leper colonies, political intrigues leading to the crucifixion, and also the personal feelings of those who met him. This is an insider's view, direct from Jesus' time, deep in feeling tones and profound in implications, giving a sense of how things truly were. This book adds to the rich information given in Jesus and the Essenes. Both books project a profound feeling of the loving power Jesus carried.

The Search for Hidden Sacred Knowledge by Dolores Cannon-In my books Keepers of the Garden and The Custodians the story was told of how the extraterrestrials developed life on Earth. It all took an inconceivable amount of time as life was established and began to flourish. As the species grew and began to develop intelligence then the ETs lived among them for many, many years because they didn't die until they wanted to. Thus, these beings were treated as gods and goddesses and legends were born. Because they knew they would eventually leave and return to their homes they tried to pass the knowledge on to specific beings that they thought were capable of carrying it on. They also interbred with the natives to produce those who would have some of the ET abilities and be able to help the people after they left.

Edgar Cayce and The Unfulfilled Destiny of Thomas Jefferson Reborn by Joanne Dimaggio

- On June 23, 1936, Edgar Cayce, the most renowned psychic of the 20th century and the father of holistic medicine, gave a Life Reading for Thomas Jefferson (T.J.) Davis, the two-day old nephew of his secretary, Gladys Davis. In this Reading, Cayce identified one of the child's past lives as that of Thomas Jefferson, adding this stunning prediction—that he “may become more important in the affairs of the WORLD than this entity in its previous experience has been to America—Thomas Jefferson.” This book examines all the reasons why that prediction never happened. It is an endearing look at the relationship between Cayce and young T.J., who was tutored by Cayce for the first nine years of the boy's life in preparation for the great work ahead of him. But it also explores how decisions made by T.J.'s absentee parents put their son's soul on a totally different path. For those who assume that a soul that reaches the greatness of a Thomas Jefferson would continue its upward trajectory, this book clearly illustrates the role that free will plays in the outcome of any life.

Where the Weeds Grow by Curt Melliger - This book is a selection of Curt's essays on subjects ranging from the simplest of all to the most sublime, from the wonders of water, rock, and moonlight to the miracle of existence, the mystery of death, and the possibility of returning to heaven early. It explores ocean, desert, and mountain, places that are not on any map, and the unmowed corner of your backyard. It examines adrenaline rushes, near-death experiences, and "impossible" coincidences.

For raw, pure, unadulterated wildness is readily available on this unparalleled planet we inhabit, but only if we dare to cut the rope and leave the herd behind. Because, you see, ecstasy lies just beyond the lawn, the pavement, and the fence.

It waits for us in the weeds.

Heaven Here on Earth by Curt Melliger - While attending catechism class as a child, Curt Melliger was taught that if he obeyed the rules all his life, he would be allowed to enter a place called Heaven when he died. The priest and nuns described it as a sacred abode up in the clouds that contained all the very best things in the universe. There was sunshine and blue sky, pretty flowers and double rainbows, peace and happiness, ringing bells and beautiful music, saints and angels and the all-enveloping love of God. The young boy's mind processed this information and came to the stunning conclusion: "Why, they're talking about Earth!"

Since that early revelation Curt has been discovering other examples of paradise incarnate wherever he goes. This book is a collection of stories on subjects ranging from water, fire, and stars to adrenaline rushes, near-death experiences, and the place where goosebumps originate, from skiing powder and climbing high mountains and walking in reverse to the changing of seasons, the lessons of night, and the reason for dreams, from wild animals, unseen visitors, and beings that do not die to the magic of the human touch, beatific ecstasy, and what awaits us on the other side of the veil that only partially separates this golden realm from the perfect one.

For the Ultimate is much closer than we have been led to believe. Indeed, it is readily available right here on this planet, this Garden of Eden, this one-of-a-kind oasis in space.

Right now.

Finding Your Way in the Spiritual Age by Dr. Dan Bird-This book will attempt to explain and possibly guide you in understanding the greatest desire of mankind, to know why we are here and why we exist, all told from a human perspective without esoteric jargon. In short, we are here to learn, but learn what? And how do we go about it? Is this anything like attending grammar school and onward? Not so much, this is real, this is life, the true core of why we are alive, part of everything we think and do during our lifetime on Earth. Though we are flesh and blood, with all the urges, needs, and desires that entails, we are also, at a higher level, a soul, with a whole other set of goals in mind.

The Essenes by Stuart Wilson & Joanna Prentis- Take a trip through time to uncover the mysterious Essene knowledge and secrets that Jesus was taught. • Did Jesus really die on the cross? Who was Mary Magdalene and what was her real connection with Jesus? • Extensive new information about the secretive Essene mystery schools. It is one of the great tragedies of Western culture that Christianity forgot and eventually denied its Essene roots. Those roots are herein explored from the perspective of past life regression. Fascinating new information emerged, including Essene links with the Druids, the existence of a secret Core Group around Jesus, and contacts with the Order of Melchizedek. Perhaps the most remarkable thing is that the Essene Jesus is restored to us, bringing to life the wise and loving Being who has been obscured by so much doctrine and dogma. His words speak to us across the centuries and open a clearer understanding of the Way, which he established, and the ultimate goal of that Way. This book makes clear that Jesus did not stand alone. He had the backing of a powerful and dedicated team of Essenes, including Joseph of Arimathea.

Spiritual Gold by Paulinne Delcour-Min - Spiritual Gold is a wonderful book about past lives. It shares the treasures of a soul's journey through time and introduces us to angels and inner guides. The past life memories in the book have been retrieved through regression and stretch back over 10,000 years. They include hearing Jesus speak and reveal his lost teachings of reincarnation; they take us to other worlds and unravel the secret of the Sphinx. But understanding the past brings a warning about our future.

The years we are living through now form a pivotal point in time. Our choices could bring us to a Golden Age – or a great catastrophe. Spiritual Gold helps us step into our power. It may be a book about past lives, but its eyes are firmly on the future. We can make a difference to how things turn out. We can forge our destiny.

I am a past life therapist and when Native American elders brought crystal skulls to England on the Wolf Song tour in 1998, I knew I had to have a private sitting with the ancient quartz skull known as Sha Na Ra. I asked the skull a question about my life and my future, and it showed me the answer in a picture that appeared deep within its crystal. The picture was detailed and sharp.

Power of The Magdalene by Stuart Wilson & Joanna Prentis- What is the secret of Mary Magdalene's power? Who were the female disciples of Jeshua? Did Jeshua and Mary Magdalene have a child? How can we understand the New Children now being born? What changes will the New Consciousness bring into our lives? This is the story of the Essenes and the female disciples of Jeshua who were deliberately marginalized and written out of the record. This book focuses on the partnership of Jeshua and Mary Magdalene and culminates in the work of the Crystal Children who are just now being born. This fascinating story was revealed through the process of past life regression and through the insight of an angelic being called Alariel. This is the inner history of our planet as it has never been told before. A narrative to inspire the spirit and warm the heart.

Jesus and The Essenes by Dolores Cannon- This extraordinary document represents a new form of historical research and straightens out many open questions and misinterpretations. It takes the form of direct dialogues between a modern researcher and a member of the Qumran Essene community. Alive around the time of Christ, this community has become the focus of ideas about the connection of Jesus' teachings to earlier traditions. This book gives a full description of the nature and purpose of the community, and the birth and upbringing of Jesus and John the Baptist. Also, it gives Essene renderings of Key Old Testament stories, concerning Moses, Ezekiel, Daniel and others, plus startling insights into ancient history. This information is candid and for real, even about the Dead Sea Scrolls, and many Biblical images and statements are corrected and added to.

There may be more to this question than meets the eye...

The Hobo Diaries by Holly Nadler - You can idyll for decades on a gorgeous island, comfy, safe and warm, immersed like a Medieval mystic on a life-long spiritual path, and all of a sudden it feels as if you've been dumped on a water slide with a sign that reads: This life is out of your price range, sweetheart! Splash!! . . . Where ya gonna live? In the spring of 2018 writer / reporter Holly Nadler gave up her year-round apartment on Martha's Vineyard even as everyone cried out, "Don't do it! You'll never find another one!" And they were right! Follow her around the Vineyard with her dear old thug of a Boston terrier as she lodges in a lilac-walled cottage which is enchanting except for the fact that it has no running water. After that come several seasons with her impossible and dementing 98 year-old mother in Palm Desert CA, a month in Edinburgh where she's banished from a retreat on the Holy Isle, then back on the Vineyard for what she comes to think of as another Summer of Discombobulation. Well, sure, because you're a life-long seeker, and you'll never lose sight of the Divine . . . see it? It's just around the next bend in the road. Or the next one?

Being in a Body by Rev. Victoria Pendragon D.D. - Being in a Body is a kind of an “owner’s guide” to your body except for the fact that we don’t actually “own” our bodies; we’re just along for the ride... so perhaps it’s a bit more like driving instructions for the elegant and finely tuned vehicle the human body is. In addition, the book functions as a maintenance guide for aspects of your being that - like the cellular intelligence of your body - one doesn’t generally learn much about that in the usually very practically oriented process of growing up.

Reconnecting To The Earth by Aaron Hoopes - In this book I intend to take you on a journey of self-discovery. It is not always an easy path, but we have reached a point where action is required if we as a species are going to continue to live on this planet. I have no intention of talking about what's going to happen if you don't follow these practices or rehash the same old "fear porn" about how everyone's going to die if the whole world doesn't rally together. There is plenty of that out there already. The direction this book takes is toward something much more positive. This journey will take some discipline and integrity. There may be some difficulty and struggle along the way. However, as you reconnect with the Earth, you will feel the changes taking place within you . . . and that can change the world.

The Sleeping Phoenix by Victoria Pendragon - Back in the 90's when I'd been assiduously side-stepping all the messages that I was receiving from the healers I was visiting about "being a healer" myself, I had a visit one afternoon from a form of consciousness – an immense glittering white light - that called itself "an embodiment of the light." It told me that the time had come for me to share what I had learned with others. This book, the third and most comprehensive of the Sleep Magic books, is a continuation of the sharing. It is an in-depth exploration of the technique and process of Sleep Magic. I hope that you find it useful.

Exploring the Divine Library by Richard Rowe - Exploring the Divine Library explores profound insights by way of meditation, past-life regression, channeling information, remote viewing, dowsing, automatic writing, and astral projection. Richard Rowe's book dives deep into spiritual realms and asks profound questions such as: where does the information come from for ideas and inventions? Where does the information come from for life reviews and soul lifetime records? How is information stored and replayed for the life review process? Where does our soul go when we have out-of-body experiences? Can I access information using remote viewing protocols? Is it possible to use a process similar to remote viewing protocols for basic telepathy? The author demonstrates how anyone can receive answers from the Divine library on any number of topics, such as life purpose, spiritual connection, telepathic communication, energetic inventions, and living a joyful life. By examining new questions using information gleaned from the library, the book provides a unique perspective of spiritual realms, forming a broader understanding of consciousness, and ultimately applies lessons learned.

Imagining the Unimaginable by Richard Rowe- Innocent people are suffering. Terrorism, war, mass murders, and crime are in the headlines every day. I hear reports of a drive-by shooting. I watch the news and witness recent actions of groups inflicting pain on innocent men, women, and children. Empathy kicks in and I imagine how it would feel to suffer like the victims. I ask myself how people can treat other human beings so bad? Then I tell myself I am thankful for my life and say a prayer for those who are suffering. Others may volunteer, donate and help out. We do what we can. I try to shift my focus to stories about good people who are helping others. Some of us meditate, others pray. Some read, exercise, watch TV, or focus inward. After a time, the internal storm passes. We continue on with our lives and let the following questions linger. Why do innocent people suffer? What's the point of suffering? Why are we here?

Little Steps by James Adams - This book is a journal documenting how I survived the traumatic loss of my son Andrew through suicide on November 7, 2009. At the time my son committed suicide, I had been keeping a journal off and on for most of my life. These conversations seemed to occur when my questions and issues were personal, emotionally charged, and usually beyond my coping skills. My book begins in the month of August 2009 when I was deep into reading a series of books by Neale Donald Walsch which began with Conversations with God: An Uncommon Dialogue, Book 1 and his newest book, which I was just beginning to read, When Everything Changes, Change Everything. Even though my son died in November, I started this book beginning with August because that provides background information as to what was going on in my life and Andrew's life in the months leading up to his suicide. Also, this is a way for me to introduce you to my journal's conversational style of writing.

Living The Life-Force by Nicholas Vesey - This book is a 'primer' on spirituality for those reluctant to join anything. Those who end up on yoga mats, in coffee bars or in airport lounges wondering what life is about, but not wanting to 'get involved'.

It confronts the question of whether there is or there is not a 'Life-Force' (and if so how to relate to it) in a 'gonzo' style that is irreligious and yet suggests at a latent spirituality, engaging the reader through appealing to their own experience, rather than the beliefs that they might hold.

Each of You by James Nussbaumer - Yes, Nussbaumer’s inspirational book series does continue the inner journey to book 5 entitled: Each of You: A Spiritual Journey Shifting from Darkness to Light. Readers will learn: you have the divine power to escape darkness in your life and allow this Heavenly Light to guide you on an uplifting journey through life in this world. This world of light, this circle of brightness is the real world, where guilt meets with forgiveness. This is your purpose now. The crossroads of fearful dark projections becomes an imprisoned nature, a sick and guilty world, where Divine guidance can’t seem to penetrate. The serious reader will learn to heal and find freedom in light. No one needs to live under that eerie feeling of guilt or fear. James emphasizes that you are much more, and is how to begin understanding both the dark and enlightened sides of you on A Spiritual Journey Shifting from Darkness to Light.

And Then I Knew My Abundance by James Nussbaumer - This book is concerned with making contact with this effective and purposeful part of the mind. You will learn to realize your consciousness in a different way from the familiar way it may have been making you operate in the physical world. You will learn to recognize consciousness as an entity that you create, but do so from behind it. I know this may seem confusing, so for now, and just to buffer the impact of this thought about “you being behind your own consciousness,” allow me first to ask you to consider a couple of extending thoughts. By extending I mean sharing our Reality together as One.

Ask yourself, what is truly a higher order: the physical or our natural Divine Self? If separated from nature the mind becomes a hollow bundle of shallow thoughts, lacking all activity, without luster and authenticity, seeking only projected images seen as form, and without the pleasure of being real, or, let’s say Divine. I do realize we’re just beginning our journey together through this book, but for now consider a projected image being something the world has taught us to see since our birth into this world. Something your physical past has taught you to picture in your mind.

Living Your Dream, Not Someone Else’s by James Nussbaumer - Readers of Living Your Dream, Not Someone Else’s will learn, through “lessons” illustrated by personal anecdotes and stories that guilt and fear literally means a bad dream. It is as though one part of our thinking stays hand in hand with harmony and love, and the other part takes a detour into guilt and fear. The path of fearful projections becomes an imprisoned nature, a sick and fearful world, where Divine guidance can’t seem to penetrate. The serious reader will learn to heal and find freedom in light. No one needs to feel guilt or fear. James emphasizes that you are much more, and is how to begin Living Your Dream, Not Someone Else’s.

- The gaps in The Origin’s structure and what The Origin is doing to fill these gaps.
- What constitutes a Universal Computer.

Ghosts And Me by Kevin Killen - This book is a journey of searching and trying to understand the paranormal. For more than thirty years, I have experienced some form of paranormal activity. This book explores many of those experiences. From the first time I experienced a ghost at the age of five, to high school where I tried my first electronic voice phenomenon. Then, my first EVP capture on tape in my childhood home.

The book goes further into my experiences in several different schools and states, such as my experiences at a school in West Virginia. While not ghostly per se, the experiences had a paranormal feel to them. From there, my years spent in Waynesburg, Pa, where I graduated from college, met and dated a witch, and had several more paranormal experiences, including living in a haunted house during school.

Tales from the Trance by Jill Thomas- Combining her longtime expertise as a hypnotherapist and clairvoyant, with fascinating and completely true case details derived from over 80 of her clients, Jill K. Thomas, CHT presents Tales from the Trance: the Sad, the Strange, and the Solvable, an insider’s glimpse into the feelings and issues blocking ordinary people from moving forward in their lives. These real-life stories will variously surprise, entertain, sadden, or/and inspire, but regardless of the reaction, every reader will find something of themselves among its pages. More importantly, hearing about these very human—and sometimes quite common—struggles could open a door for many, because changing peoples’ attitudes toward their own problems is usually the difference between their continuing to suffer, or choosing to seek help.

Imagine what it would be like to talk to a recently deceased loved one. What questions would you ask? What is it like? Are previous reports correct? In The Anne Dialogues these same questions were asked and a depth of knowledge never before experienced was returned.

In The Anne Dialogues we find out: *The affect drugs have on the soul. *What our higher self really is. *What aspects, shards, secondary and sub-incarnations are. *What the Ego is and what role it plays. *How big our network of helpers are. *What evolutionary debt is. *How we choose to experience what we experience and how it affects others. *That the Earth is not the only location where we incarnate. *What Karma is. *That we are smaller individualizations of God!

Application of Impossible Things by Natalie Sudman- There have been many, many people killed and maimed by bomb explosions during the war in Iraq. This is the amazing story of a woman who survived a near fatal explosion. Incredibly, that was only the beginning of her story. During the event, she experienced a NDE (Near Death Experience). She retained vivid memories of going to the spirit side and from that unique out-of-body perspective, she helped celestial beings put her body back together so she could return to life. She wanted to share what the experience was like as viewed from the spirit side. This is a book for anyone interested in near death experiences and out of body experiences. It is one of the first of such books to come out of the Iraq conflict. (Cover may vary)

Dancing on a Stamp by Garnet Schulhauser-Have you ever stared at your image in the mirror and wondered how you got here? Did God select this life for you, or did the universe assign it by chance? Dance of Eternal Rapture by Garnet Schulhauser - It has been quite a ride! Ever since I met my spirit guide, Albert, disguised as a homeless man, that fateful day in 2007, my life has never been the same. I went from being a buttoned-down, strait-laced corporate lawyer to an author who has published four books (including this one) about my dialogue and subsequent astral travels with Albert. Once I decided to come out of the spiritual closet there was no turning back, and I have no regrets whatsoever. I have lost a few friends along the way (some of whom likely think I am suffering from an early onset of dementia), but I have gained many new friends who have encouraged me to continue writing about the revelations from Albert and the other wise souls I have met during my travels.

Beyond Our World, Book 1 – Stellar Soul by David Rousseau - I am a stellar soul from the Great Central Sun experiencing earth through this human avatar.

I quickly remembered that I was not from this world. From the age of six to forty-six, very few knew of my experience (except for those close to me).

It all began one evening in the summer of 1981, when I was playing outside. I saw a bluish-white light come down from the sky and position itself right above me. It just stood there, motionless. The moment seemed to last forever. When the object had gone back to the vertical and at an incredible speed, I found myself in front of a being, which was obviously not terrestrial: humanoid in shape, bluish skin with slight silver highlights, large green eyes and long, deep black hair...

It was Ezahyel, my brother from the Pleiades. He would come back to see me so that I would not forget who I was and where I came from. Forty years later, my first book was published: Au-Delà De Notre Monde, in which I relate my personal, spiritual, universal and galactic experiences.

Starseeds What's It All About? By Alexander Quinn - This book acts as a 360* dot-connector, giving a beginner to master level explanation of the Starseed phenomenon, which is currently exploding globally and where it has developed to since. It links together various information and insights spiritually, metaphysically and scientifically so that the phenomenon can be broken down into disparate parts and understood from a very unique vantage point as a connected whole. This book offers the why, who, how, when, and where. For a very long time humanity has been kept in the dark about its spiritual and cosmic inheritance. Who would do such a thing and what would they gain from such an endeavour? In an age of lies everything has become a conspiracy theory and the truth is far stranger than fiction. We are not having a global awakening, but a remembrance of who we really are, a return to our true selves. We are from the stars and we are not alone.

Legacy from the Stars by Dolores Cannon- We are children of the stars. This is our legacy and our heritage. In the history of the cosmos Earth is a young planet. Our souls on the other hand have been around forever and will continue to be around forever. Thus, Earth is not our only home. We have lived many lives in unusual environments before deciding to journey here and learn the lessons of Earth. After our schooling is completed on this planet we will journey onward to discover new worlds to explore. The memories of these soul journeys are recorded in our subconscious and Dolores shows that they can be retrieved through regressive hypnosis. She reports dramatic cases where the subjects relived other lifetimes in strange environments-inhabitants of other planets.

Keepers of the Garden by Dolores Cannon - Dolores uses information obtained from regressive hypnosis to formulate a provocative viewpoint on the ancient astronaut theory of human origins. Her findings indicate that the Earth was seeded eons ago by travelers from outer space. These visits by ancient extraterrestrials did not end with their intervention in human evolution. They have continued up to the present day resulting in a whole class of contemporary humans who have been subject to alien abduction.

The Legend of Starcrash by Dolores Cannon - Through regressive hypnosis, a lost legend of the history of mankind has been retrieved from the recesses of time. Did the American Indians descend from the inhabitants of an alien spacecraft that crashed in the Alaska-Canada region thousands of years ago? Keepers of the Garden told the story of the original seeding of the planet Earth by aliens from outer space. Starcrash indicates that aliens continued to come to Earth, some intentionally and some by accident, throughout our history. In order to adjust to harsh conditions, they were forced to interbreed with the local aborigines. Does their blood still flow in the veins of certain American Indian tribes?

From Fear to Love by Donna Lynn-What would you ask if you could talk to the beings who inhabit your worst nightmares? And what would you do if they answered?

From the time, she was a small child, Donna Lynn experienced night terrors that were so disturbing they affected her waking life and relationships. Eventually she chose to consciously venture into that territory of the unknown to do battle with otherworldly beings who had haunted her dreams since childhood – only to find out they are not here to do battle at all. They come with powerful messages of love and healing on both personal and planetary levels. This book is a message of hope that we as a species can overcome the pervasive consciousness of fear and anxiety in our world today.
